The Transfiguration of the Lord August 6, 2017

This weekend we celebrate the Feast of the Transfiguration of the Lord. In the first reading from the Prophet Daniel we hear about the Lord our God sitting on the throne. Through the New Testament readings we understand that Jesus will be our final judge. We understand that God the Father, Son and Holy Spirit will sit on thrones, the sign of kingship. So how do we compare the image of a throne to the image of Jesus crucified and dying in agony on the cross? Often times when we think of a king or queen on a throne we think of nobility ruling with arrogance and having no connection to regular folk. When we think of the Trinity we think of the love of the Father who created us in His image. When we think of Jesus we think of the Son who redeems us. When we think of the Holy Spirit we think of the courage and wisdom given to us by the Lord. We understand that God is perfect and though while we are not perfect we strive with the Lord's grace to live as perfectly as mortal human beings can. When we consider the image of the throne on which the Lord sits we consider God who judges us and yet loves us unconditionally.

This weekend with great joy we consider how faithful God's love is for us. Throughout the Old and New Testaments we hear how humankind has disappointed God and in response with a patient love, God gives us another chance to be redeemed. Our Brother Jesus came from the Father to redeem us and fill us with the grace necessary to be the loyal true disciples that God invites us to be.

In this week's Gospel we hear Jesus took Peter, James and John to a high mountain. On this high remote mountain the human Jesus gave the disciples a glimpse of the Divine Jesus. The Lord's face shone like the sun, His clothes became white like light. When we enter the Kingdom of Heaven we too will see our Lord Jesus Christ shining in glory as did Peter, James and John. In this Gospel we see the Old and New Testaments linked. Moses and Elijah converse with the men of the New Testament. The voice of the Father was heard to say "This is my beloved Son with whom I am well pleased, listen to Him."

We understand my dear friends that entering the Kingdom of Heaven is possible when we follow the words of the Father. Jesus Christ is the way with a love beyond our comprehension. He guided humankind when living on earth. With this same love He guides us from His place in Heaven. Let's not be afraid to be strong but loving pilgrims on the journey. Christ knows we're human. He knows we're frail. Through the sacraments of Mother Church we're fed and strengthened as soldiers in battle. We battle the evil one, the world that does not accept Christ and a society that is created on greed rather than love. We carry not a sword but a crucifix, the reminder that by the death and glorious resurrection of our Redeemer Jesus we are set free in loving strength to continue His work on earth.

A Student's Prayer (by St. Thomas Aquinas)

Come, Holy Spirit, Divine Creator, true source of light and fountain of wisdom!

Pour forth your brilliance upon my dense intellect, dissipate the darkness which covers me, that of sin and of ignorance.

Grant me a penetrating mind to understand, a retentive memory, method and ease in learning, the lucidity to comprehend, and abundant grace in expressing myself.

Guide the beginning of my work, direct its progress, and bring it to successful completion.

This I do through Jesus Christ, true God and true man, living and reigning with You and the Father, forever and ever.

Amen.

The feast of the Transfiguration of Christ celebrates the revelation of Christ’s divine glory on Mount Tabor in Galilee. After revealing to His disciples that He would be put to death in Jerusalem, Christ, along with Ss. Peter, James, and John went up the mountain. There St. Matthew writes, “he was transfigured before them. And his face did shine as the sun; and his garments became white as snow.”
